SEQUOIA HOSPITAL FOUNDATION WELCOMES NEW BOARD MEMBERS

REDWOOD CITY, Calif. (November 24, 2015) – The Sequoia Hospital Foundation is pleased to announce the election of Tara Fowler, Ellen Haas and Ken Tehaney to its Board of Directors. New members were elected at recent Board meetings and will each serve a three year term, beginning immediately.

Tara Fowler, CFP®, CRPC®, CDFA™ is an Assistant Vice President and Senior Financial Advisor at Merrill Lynch in San Mateo. Prior to Merrill Lynch Tara served as a financial advisor for Morgan Stanley and for the eighteen years previous, she was a successful small business owner. Tara was named the 2014 Business Woman of the Year by the Redwood City San Mateo County Chamber of Commerce. Tara sits on the board of the Sequoia Awards, the Kainos Home and Training Center Auxiliary Board, and is a member of the Redwood City San Mateo County Chamber of Commerce.

Ellen Haas is a founding partner in the Redwood City-based law firm of Haas & Blake LLP, specializing in entity planning, estate planning, estate administration and probate. Prior to Haas & Blake, Ellen was an attorney with the Hannig Law Firm where she managed the estate planning and administration practice. Ellen serves on the boards of Casa de Redwood, the Sequoia Awards, Kainos Home and Training Center, YMCA of Silicon Valley, San Mateo County Health Foundation and Broadway by the Bay.

Ken Tehaney is a proud father of three grown children. He is the Secretary of Belle Haven Realty Co., a fourth generation family-owned and managed real estate investment and development company. Over the years he has been engaged in various projects and activities. While he and the Company have phased out of the hotel operations, the focus has been on expansion of its commercial and industrial real estate portfolio. As a son of emeritus Board member Gloria Kennett, Ken continues a family legacy of support for Sequoia Hospital dating back to the founding of the Sequoia Hospital Foundation.

About the Sequoia Hospital Foundation

For more than three decades the Sequoia Hospital Foundation, a 501(c)(3) not-for-profit organization, has remained dedicated to supporting the life-saving mission of Sequoia Hospital. Financial support from individuals, families, foundations and organizations is essential to maintain Sequoia's ability to offer
